CONTEST COMPONENTS

Cover Letter and Resume

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without these items.
- Guidelines and examples of a Cover Letter and Resume are included in this packet.
- Your cover letter should not be a narrative of your resume. Instead use this to introduce your personality to the judge. Describe who you are, what the swine industry means to you, why you deserve this scholarship, and what you will do if awarded the scholarship.
- Your cover letter must not exceed one page in length with 1" margins!
- Your resume should list your accomplishments, experiences, and skills, including 4-H, FFA, breed association, and other related involvements. The resume must not exceed two pages in length with 1" margins; no pictures allowed.

Letters of Reference

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without these items.
- Applicant must submit three (3) letters of reference.
 - One from a principal or guidance counselor of applicant's high school
 - One from county agent or agriculture teacher
 - One can be from an individual of the applicant's choosing

Record Keeping

- Records will be scored based on completeness and accuracy as of the day of judging.
- Must be submitted, to the superintendent's office upon checking in to the barn on the Tuesday morning before the barrow show (or earlier). It will be returned to you prior to departing the State Fair.

Swine Judging Competition

- Applicants will place a class of four live animals (market hogs) to test their skills in selection and evaluation of swine.
- Resources:
 - University of Tennessee Swine Judging
 - Judging Swine and Oral Reasons 101

Interview

- An interview will be with a selected committee.
- Interview attire is business casual.
 - Business casual is defined as: for women – a reasonable length skirt (not mini skirt) or full-length pants of a non-jeans material combined with a top or an informal dress; for men – a collared shirt {can be button-down or a polo}, trousers with a belt and shoes;
 - Unacceptable for either gender – gym clothes, rumpled or ripped clothing, miniskirts, bare midriffs, flip-flops.
 - FFA official dress is acceptable.

Written Test

- No study materials, or communication devices will be allowed during the taking of the test. If you are found with any such material, you will be immediately disqualified from the contest.
- Test will be comprised of 35 questions for Seniors.
- Test questions will cover proper swine management and the swine industry.
- Resources for test preparation:
 - ☐ SC Pork Board Website
 - ☐ Pork Checkoff Website
