

2023 Instructions for Poultry Showmen
4-H State Poultry Showmanship Contest
Saturday, October 21, 2023 at 10:00am
State Fair Grounds, Columbia, SC

Location: Grassy area below the Swine barn and adjacent to the Horse arena

- You have registered for the 4-H Poultry Showmanship Contest at the State Fair.
- You will be receiving a parking pass and will enter the fairground at GATE 1 located on Rosewood Drive off of Assembly Street.
- Check-in begins at 8:30am. The Contest will begin promptly at 10:00am.
- Please bring the bird you will be showing in a suitable clean coop or crate with plenty of clean bedding.
- All birds MUST be blood tested according to NPIP BEFORE coming to the fair. Therefore, an official NPIP band on your bird along with associated paper work should accompany your bird.
- You are responsible for providing food and water for your bird. Along with suitable containers from which to feed and water your chickens.
- Your birds will be held in a secure and safe place until 6pm that night if you choose to remain at the Fair.
- Spectators may want to bring a folding chair as the grand stands are a little far away for viewing the show.
- Water and Snacks will be available to the 4-H member showing their chickens.
- If you have questions contact Mickey Hall: mahall@clemson.edu or 864-885-2197
- Have a Great 4-H Day at the Fair! Get your "Green On"!

