CONTEST COMPONENTS

Cover Letter and Resume

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without these items.
- Guidelines and examples of a Cover Letter and Resume are included in this packet.
- Your cover letter should not be a narrative of your resume. Instead use this to introduce your personality to the judge. Describe who you are, what the swine industry means to you, why you deserve this scholarship, and what you will do if awarded the scholarship.
- Your cover letter must not exceed one page in length with 1" margins, size 12 Arial or Times New Roman font, and be a product of the applicant's own work.
- Your resume should list your accomplishments, experiences, and skills, including 4-H, FFA, breed association, and other related involvements. The resume must not exceed two pages in length with 1" margins, no pictures allowed, size 12 Arial or Times New Roman font, and be a product of the applicant's own work.

Letters of Reference

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without these items.
- Applicant must submit two (2) letters of reference. Possible sources are:
  - Principal or guidance counselor of applicant's high school
  - County agent or agriculture teacher
  - Another individual familiar with the applicant's character and experience

Essay

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without an attached essay.
- Essay should be double-spaced, no more than three pages, size 12 Arial or Times New Roman font, and be a product of the applicant's own work.
- Any citations, if needed, should be made in APA format.
- 2023 Swine Scholarship Topic: As more meat alternatives become available in mainstream restaurants, is this new technology an opportunity for enhanced value-added products, or a threat to modern livestock production?

Written Test

- No study materials, or communication devices will be allowed during the taking of the test. If you are found with any such material, you will be immediately disqualified from the contest.
- Test will be comprised of 35 questions for Seniors and will be administered on Tuesday, October 17
- Test questions will cover proper swine management and the swine industry.
- Resources for test preparation:
  - SC Pork Board Website
  - Pork Checkoff Website
  - National Pork Producers Council Website
  - Modern Livestock and Poultry Production 8th ed. Gillespie & Flanders

Interview

- The top third of applicants based on application, essay, and written test score will advance to a final interview round. Interviews will take place approximately thirty (30) minutes following completion of the written test.
- Each of the final applicants will be interviewed by a selected committee.
- Interview will cover education/work history, swine industry/show experience, leadership and community involvement, and future goals/plans.
- All interviewed applicants should wear appropriate attire.
  - Clean, appropriate show attire is acceptable
  - Business casual is defined as: for women – a reasonable length skirt (not mini skirt) or full-length pants of a non-jeans material combined with a top or an informal dress; for men – a collared shirt {can be button-down or a polo}, trousers with a belt and shoes;
  - Unacceptable for either gender – gym clothes, rumpled or ripped clothing, miniskirts, bare midriffs, flip-flops.
  - FFA official dress is acceptable but not required
