

2024 SC State Fair 4-H News

Saturday, October 12, 2024 at the SC State Fair was a beautiful day for 61 4-H Poultry Showmanship Contestants. Saturday, was also 4-H Day at the State Fair. Many people helped to make the 4-H Poultry Showmanship Contest a success. Just to mention a few Mr. Steve Hucks Lancaster County 4-H Faculty who also brought along two very hard working 4-H Ambassadors: Natalie Sprinkle and Madelyn Anderson. Mr. Clint Attaway who coordinates all of the logistics for the fair and carefully guards the chickens when the 4-H members and their families enjoy the fair. Our judges deserve thanks for sitting in the hot seat; they are Mrs. Jessica McManus, Mrs. Kirsten Glenn, Dr. Sarah Scott and Mrs. Tina Kemmitt kept the contests running smoothly. Special thanks to Nancy Smith and Catherine Lockhart for hosting this contest as well as supplying the premiums for the contest. Also thankful for the support of parents and loved ones, that give it all for these fine 4-H members.

Like any 4-H show, there was a lot of camaraderie, good sportsmanship and educational opportunities which makes us all proud. Even if you do not go home with that Blue ribbon, hopefully, you learned about how to improve on your poultry showmanship skills. And remember to celebrate those that do win. Be gracious in winning and loss. So on to the results.
