

SC Farm Bureau Federation 2026 Swine Scholarship Information Packet

ELIGIBILITY

Youth must meet the following eligibility requirements in order to be considered for the SC Farm Bureau Federation Swine Scholarship:

1. Open to youth from South Carolina and from states with reciprocal show agreements with the South Carolina State Fair. Georgia and Florida are the current states with reciprocal show agreements with the South Carolina State Fair.
2. Applicant must be an exhibitor at the South Carolina State Fair Swine Show the year of application and compete in scholarship showmanship.
3. Applicant must be a high school student in grade 10, 11, or 12, or enrolled in a college or technical college degree program.
4. Applicant must, if not already enrolled, at some future date, pursue a degree or certificate program.
5. Applicant must not have passed their twentieth (20) birthday as of January 1st, 2026.
6. Previous winners of the South Carolina State Fair Swine Scholarship are not eligible.
7. If multiple species scholarships are offered, the applicant is not eligible to win the same scholarship throughout their age/grade eligibility.
8. Applicants cannot win multiple South Carolina Farm Bureau Federation Species Scholarships during the same year. (i.e., a student who competes in, and wins, the Dairy Cattle Scholarship is not eligible to win the Beef Cattle Scholarship during the same year).

2026 Applications must be received by September 18th, 2026

TO APPLY

1. Your application will only be considered complete if it contains ALL of the following items:
 - Official 2026 SC Farm Bureau Federation scholarship entry form (page #4 of this scholarship packet)
 - Cover Letter and Resume
 - Two (2) Letters of Reference

Only complete applications will be considered for this program.

2. Completed application packets must be submitted electronically using the following link:

<https://clemson.app.box.com/f/8df5e198701e4ffeb60b6bfd059d0902>

All application files should include the applicant's name and species in the file name when submitting. If an applicant is submitting multiple species scholarship applications, a separate, fully completed application must be submitted for each entry. Applicants should receive a confirmation upon submission. Any questions regarding submission of applications can be sent to Hannah Elrick (hking@clemson.edu) or Heather Shultz (hkshult@clemson.edu).

CONTEST COMPONENTS

Pre-Fair Components

The following must be submitted by September 18th, 2026:

Cover Letter and Resume

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without these items.
- Guidelines and examples of a Cover Letter and Resume are included in this packet.
- Your cover letter should not be a narrative of your resume. Instead, use this to introduce your personality to the judge. Describe who you are, what the swine industry means to you, why you deserve this scholarship, and what you will do if awarded the scholarship.
- Your cover letter must not exceed one page in length with 1" margins, size 12 Arial or Times New Roman font, and be a product of the applicant's own work.
- Your resume should list your accomplishments, experiences, and skills, including 4-H, FFA, breed association, and other related involvements. The resume must not exceed two pages in length with 1" margins, no pictures allowed, size 12 Arial or Times New Roman font, and be a product of the applicant's own work.

Letters of Reference

- Must accompany the entry form. Your application will not be considered complete without these items.
- Applicant must submit two (2) letters of reference. Possible sources are:
 - Principal or guidance counselor of applicant's high school
 - County agent or agriculture teacher
 - Another individual familiar with the applicant's character and experience

Preliminary In-Person Components

The following will take place during the SC State Fair on Monday, October 19th, 2026:

Written Test

- No study materials or communication devices will be allowed during the test. If you are found with any such material, you will be immediately disqualified from the contest.
- The test will consist of 25 questions for Seniors and will be administered on Monday, October 19th.
- Test questions will cover proper swine management and the swine industry.
- Resources for test preparation:
 - SC Pork Board Website
 - Pork Checkoff Website
 - National Pork Producers Council Website
 - Modern Livestock and Poultry Production, 8th ed. Gillespie & Flanders

Practical Application Test

- The practical application test will consist of five (5) questions specific to the swine industry (e.g., feed ration balancing, tool identification and use, vaccination dosages, breeding calendars, etc.) that will allow students to demonstrate practical knowledge within the industry.

Following the completion of the written test and practical application test, the Top 15 participants by total score (Pre-Fair Components plus written test and practical application test) will advance to the following activities (if there are fewer than fifteen total participants, all applicants will advance to the final activities).

Final In-Person Components

The following will take place during the SC State Fair on Monday, October 19th, 2026, approximately one (1) hour following the completion of the preliminary in-person components:

Interview

- The top fifteen applicants, based on application, practical application test, and written test scores, will advance to a final interview round.
- Each of the final applicants will interview with a selected committee.
- The interview will cover education/work history, swine industry/show experience, leadership and community involvement, and future goals/plans.
- All interviewing applicants should wear appropriate attire.
 - Clean, appropriate show attire is acceptable;
 - Business casual is defined as: for women – a reasonable length skirt (not mini skirt) or full-length pants of a non-jeans material combined with a top or an informal dress; for men – a collared shirt {can be button-down or a polo}, trousers with a belt and shoes;
 - Unacceptable for either gender – gym clothes, rumpled or ripped clothing, miniskirts, bare midriffs, flip-flops;
 - FFA official dress is acceptable but not required.

Showmanship Class

All advancing individuals will compete in a species showmanship class. The ring judge will rank participants. The first-place showman in the class will receive a full 50 points, with each subsequent place receiving 3 fewer points (i.e., 2nd place will receive 47 points, 3rd will receive 44 points, etc.).

Scoring

The scholarship will be awarded to the individual with the highest total score, added together as follows:

Possible Points	Component
100	Cover Letter and Resume
50	Practical Application Test
50	Written Test
100	Interview
50	Showmanship
350	TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE

Tie Breakers

In the event of a tie, the individual with the highest score in the following categories will be used, in the order listed, to determine the scholarship recipients:

1. Interview
2. Showmanship Ranking
3. Written Test
4. Practical Application Test
